June 11th and 12th, 2016

Eleventh Sunday In Ordinary Time

King David confesses, "I have sinned against the Lord" - the sins of adultery, murder, deception, infidelity. The Pharisee in the Gospel expects Jesus to be repulsed by any person who approaches him dripping in sin. But before the contrite and sorrowful sinner, Christ's response is just the opposite; he offers forgiveness. Why? Because, once forgiven, the former great sinner "will love him more." The sinful woman refuses to let the fact of her sin be the horizon of her life. Christ is there. She goes to him, interrupts the dinner, bathes his feet, and weeps. And the Lord acts as if he has always been waiting for her... waiting for all who "live by faith in the Son of God." Magnificat June 2016 Vol. 18, No. 4

Celebrate Ordinary Time

Because Ordinary Time refers to the period of the Catholic Church's liturgical year that fall outside of the major seasons (Advent, Christmas, Lent, and Easter), and because of the connotations of the term "ordinary" in English, many people think Ordinary Time refers to the parts of the Church year that are unimportant. But nothing could be further from the truth.

Ordinary Time is called "ordinary" because the weeks are numbered. The Latin word ordinalis, which refers to numbers in a series, stems from the Latin word ordo, from which we get the English word order. Thus, Ordinary Time is in fact the ordered life of the Church—the period in which we live our lives neither in feasting (as in the Christmas and Easter seasons) or in more severe penance (as in Advent and Lent), but in watchfulness and expectation of the Second Coming of Christ. Scott P. Richert

Celebrate the Year of Mercy, and perform a corporal work of mercy in peace! Our students have planted the joint School and Parish Masithuthukisane Garden. Now it's our turn to spend time tending to the garden by performing such tasks as light weeding, minor harvesting, and "waving to the locals" who constantly walk by. Bring your sunhat, water bottle and sunscreen. Most required tools are provided. Best yet - no experience is required. Contact Jamie Zwicker at 250-391-1280, jzwicker@cisdv.bc.ca, or sign up for a slot on our Masithuthukisane Garden Calendar, located at the doors of the church, the parish office, or at the school office.

The Masithuthukisane envelope campaign began last February, 14th – with a second annual collection envelope provided next week (June 19th). Our parish is committed until 2020 to financially help train and hire local unemployed women and men to work in farming cooperatives, which is overseen by the Diocese of Mariannhill, in South Africa. This effort will assist 3500 people, many of whom are undernourished. Our financial support helps the villagers who live in desperate poverty and often in orphan-led and grandparent-led families. Thank you for your generous support.

There will be a Sunday Eucharistic celebration with Charismatic praise and worship on June 26th at 7:00 pm at the Franciscan Friary at 1076 Joan Crescent, Victoria.
