News and Features

Joseph

BY JEAN ALLEN

"Joseph, son of David, do not be afraid..."

We all know that God said, "Do not be afraid," 365 times in the bible. But it's one thing to know this in your head and quite another thing to hear it in your heart, to hear God say your name and tell you to your face, "Do not be afraid." Life changes in that moment.

Joseph woke up from that dream and knew what needed to be done. Not only that but he wanted to do it. Did he ever have any doubts or sudden overwhelming anxiety about the road in front of him and Mary? Of course he did! But he just had to go back to that instant in the dream where God said directly to him, "Joseph, son of David, do not be afraid." God had gifted him with an epiphany of who was really directing the show and when doubt and fear bubbled up, Joseph had to stay in the moment and say, "In this day and in this moment I can, with God's grace, do all that is required of me." He wasn't called to work out all the details of the future. It wasn't his responsibility to figure out everything that might go wrong. In the present moment he only had to be what he was called to be: Joseph, son of David, husband of Mary and father of Jesus.

We all have a kind of affinity with Joseph, that quiet, strong man in the background. He is a comforting figure, a solid and good man who only wanted to offer himself to do whatever God called him to do. He didn't place himself in the foreground or need recognition. We know so little about him except that he was chosen with care and grace by God to be the protector of the most precious child ever born and that he did that faithfully and without question because God had instilled into his heart that there was nothing to be afraid of.

We all need to pray that God will visit our hearts and say, "Son of David, daughter of David...Do. Not. Be. Afraid."

St. Joseph's School Welcomes First Nations Cultural Event

In keeping with the school's theme this year of
"Healing, Truth and Reconciliation",

St. Joseph's School is welcoming a

Nuu-Chah-Nulth First Nations Group who are having a Cultural Event on: Saturday, Dec 31st and Sunday, Jan 1st

We are working hard to ensure there is enough room in the parking lot to accommodate them and also those coming to mass on those days. The events start in the afternoon, so Sunday morning mass should not be affected. Saturday evening mass and Sunday evening mass goers may find parking a bit tight at those times. We encourage everyone to consider attending Sunday morning mass, and, if you need to attend the evening masses, we will ask both groups to leave parking spaces for those who are elderly or have mobility issues and those who still enjoy unrestricted mobility to park in the Spectrum Community School parking lot, which they have made available to us to support this worthy reconciliation effort.

Youth Group

All Youth Grades 6 and up are invited.
We meet after Saturday Mass in the School Gym.

The Canadian Conference of Catholic Bishops has also released Burying the Dead, Grieving Well: A Guide for Catholics on Bodily Disposition and Grief. It deals with death and the various forms of bodily disposition, as well as the Catholic liturgical and pastoral practices that accompany the grieving process. A copy of the guide is available on our website at <https://www.rcdvictoria.org/funerals-and-burials>.

The guide was developed jointly by the Diocese of Victoria, the Archdiocese of Vancouver, and the Diocese of Saskatchewan, and is based on the CCCB's recent Pastoral Letter on Human Trafficking and Sexual Exploitation in Canada. Through prayer and education, the guide leads participants to become more aware of the human trafficking that is occurring in our midst, and helps them learn how to bring to light situations where people may be in danger. The webinar will provide an overview of each section of the guide and recommendations on how to use it. The webinar is free, but advance registration is required at: <https://form.jotform.com/222704961965262>
