Right Places And Better Parts

BY JEAN ALLEN

Are you a Mary or a Martha? I think the main tendency is to secretly decide that we are Martha, always worried and distracted by many things.

The truth is, we are both. There is a Mary and a Martha in each one of us – men included. In all of us there is the ego self, needing to have situations under control and tasks prioritized and dealt with efficiently. This is our Martha who has invited the Lord into her home and wants to show him great hospitality. But while she is making sure everything is going according to her plan, she forgets to actually pay attention to Jesus or to ask him what he wants.

Then there is the part of us, our true self, that yearns for the healing and inspiring Word of the Lord. We long to have the opportunity to sit at Jesus's feet and feel his eyes upon us. We want to listen and learn and laugh and breathe a sigh of relief at what we hear. This is our Mary who, having invited the Lord into her home, wants only to be with him.

Because Jesus told Martha that Mary had chosen the better part, we feel like it's not such a great thing to be a Martha. Maybe we should be sitting in our prayer room all day at the feet of the Lord. But this would not be entirely the best thing either. We can't shut ourselves off from the world and the needs of those around us.

The clue as to why Jesus told Martha that Mary had chosen the better part was not really the outward activities of either woman; it was the inner attitudes. Martha felt overburdened and resentful. Mary was at peace in her Lord's presence. Martha could have been busy but still attentive, listening and just content to serve the Lord. Resentment causes stress which causes worry and distraction.

Mary's focus was on Jesus. Martha's focus was on herself. And that's how we tell if we have chosen the better part:

The absence of self-righteous resentment.

Pray for Vocations

O Lord, my God, You renew the Church in every age by raising up priests outstanding in holiness, living witnesses of Your unchanging Love. In Your Plan for our salvation You provide shepherds for Your people. Fill the hearts of young men with the spirit of courage and love that they may answer Your call generously. Give parents the grace to encourage vocations in their family by prayer and good example. Raise up worthy priests for Your Altars and ardent, but gentle servants of the Gospel. Give the Church more priests and keep them faithful in their love and service. May many young men choose to serve You by devoting themselves to the service of Your people.

From the Diocese

Pastoral Centre Summer Hours

The Pastoral Centre will be closed to the public on Fridays during the months of July and August. The new summer schedule will allow some staff members of the Pastoral Centre to take well deserved summer holidays, work remotely from home and/or complete other tasks uninterrupted on Fridays. Employees of the Pastoral Centre will continue to have the capacity to receive phone messages and access files remotely, thereby continuing to be accessible, though not necessarily available in the building. We remain grateful for the support and understanding of our parish and school communities.

As we extend our sincerest thanks and appreciation for those who minister and serve in the Diocese, we hope and pray that the summer months will provide opportunities for additional rest and relaxation.
