"Oh how foolish you are..." When Jesus said this to the men on the road to Emmaus, it sounds like he was full of derision for their pain and disappointment; it sounds like he was calling them idiots. If we stopped to think about it, if he was really calling them idiots, he would be a hypocrite, considering that he preached that to call someone a fool was equivalent to murder.

There are various Greek words translated as 'fool' or 'foolish'. When Jesus cautioned us against calling someone a fool, the Greek word used is 'raca', which is absolutely an insult. The Greek word used on the road to Emmaus is 'anoētoi', which simply means acting without considering the full picture. The two disciples he was speaking to should have had a broader understanding if they had been paying attention to Jesus before he died. Jesus didn't hide the fact that all the law and the prophets were pointing to his life and death. He had told them point blank that he had to die but that he would be raised from the dead. They must have thought it was all a metaphor for something far less drastic.

But we're not 'anoētoi' foolish. Or are we? How often are we acting or reacting without having a full picture? Most of the time, I would say. We all see the little part of the picture that is impacting us and causing us hurt, disappointment, resentment or fear of the future and we forget what Christ has said to us time and time again through his Word, "Do not be afraid. Trust me. I am in control. You are loved."

All of the disciples were 'anoētoi' foolish. They simply reacted strongly to devastating circumstances in fear and dismay, which inhibited their ability to consider the whole picture. Did this make Jesus angry and impatient? Absolutely not! To the two on the Emmaus road, he simply said, "You're not seeing the whole picture. Let me show you."

We are all limited beings and we all miss the whole picture. We need to remember to pray,

"Lord, show me what I'm missing."

The presentation will be held after 6:00 Mass on Wednesday, May 31, in the basement of St. Joseph the Worker Parish on Burnside and Mackenzie. You can also learn about Mary-Anne's adventure in her best-selling spiritual memoir, Under the Midnight Sun: Journey with the Sahtu Dene.
